AGAPE FEAST

The Agape Feast was a very special evening. During the evening as I was taking pictures I saw people bonding with other people and a sense of brotherly love going around the room. I felt God's presence throughout the place. It was a time for people to come together and not only to fellowship, but also to worship God. During the evening we had communion. I've had communion before, but this was different. I felt so much better and I was actually humbled. I'm not the best Christian there is but I do know that at the Agape Feast I personally was deeply moved, and for once I felt safe about who I am and very comfortable with those around me. It was a blessing I think that everybody felt.

My Day at Pink Beds

On Sabbath morning, we all got on the buses and took a trip to Pink Beds. When we got there, we began worship. We formed groups to play out scenes from the bible for Sabbath school, and pastor Karen Miller gave a sermon. After a long wait, we ate haystacks for lunch. Then we socialized for a little while, and some people went on hikes, while others played games like Frisbee. I hung out with my friends and played Mr. Gerst's cool 12-string guitar, which was the highlight of my day. Overall, I would say that our trip to Pink Beds was a fun and unforgettable one.

Saturday night, August 26, 2000, the Student Association held Anything Goes. They started out with vespers, where some of the students and Pastor Travis led the song service. Kristi Weis presented a short worship. The mattress race was the first event. Then we attempted to pile all the people from our class into the "mother ship." The juniors got 21 members of their class into the car. Next, they had to push the car as fast as they could down the track for fifty yards. There was an oil slide called the "greased widowmaker", that a member of each class had to try and run up as fast as he could without slipping. It looked rather difficult. Afterward, there was a tug of war and a tire pull in the mud pit. It was all lots of fun.

Alumni Weekend is always an exciting time at Fletcher Academy. Students from the past and present gather to worship on Sabbath. On Saturday night the Alumni won the annual Alumni vs. All-Stars flag football game, then they headed up to the gym for a pick-up game of basketball. Sunday morning at the brunch hosted by our cafeteria, the alumni generously donated funds to various academy projects. We look forward to seeing them again next year!

In August you arrive to a mass of smiling faces, a storm of "hellos" and a barrage of questions, both scary and exciting. Then you realize you have a few questions of your own: What time does the next period start? How do I work this phone card? What exactly is Yankee Doodle Noodle? You soon realize that you are a part of Fletcher Academy's family. With some help, your questions will be answered.

Senior Presentation

Saturday Night October 14, Fletcher Academy was the sight of the 2001 "Julie Springer Show." The episode featured Fletcher Academy Seniors in twenty years. Senior Class sponsors Mr. Robertson and Mr. Youngberg had changed dramatically in twenty years. After the Class of 2001 graduated,

Mr. Robertson lost his job and had to move into the van down by the river. Mr. Youngberg gave up teaching after they graduated and persued a career in country music. The two men confronted former students who were now successful business men and women. Even the General Conference President, Elijah Wayne Postell stopped by to say hello. The seniors also presented their class officers and shared music and worship thoughts as well as sing the class song written by Josh Burrill and Robert Merz.

Once a week, friends gather to worship, fellowship and praise the Lord. Vespers is a special time on Fletcher Academy's campus, but one hour a week is not enough.

F.A. I. T. H. ministries plays an integral part in the planning of spiritual activities on campus.

Anything from organizing the annual Agape Feast to the Spring Weekend of Spiritual Emphasis, F.A. I. T. H. ministries is made up of students who love the Lord and who remind us that He is alive and well here at F.A.

DRAMA

Community Service

Fletcher Academy is committed to giving back to our community. This has become a tradition at Fletcher. Each Fall and Spring the students give up their day to provide service for others. This year our students served the communities of Fletcher and Hendersonville by raking leaves, helping to work with first graders at Fletcher Elementary School, helping to beautify the grounds at Ministry Seven and beautifying our very own campus.

Sports

As soon as 6:30 p.m. rolls around, we are ready for Rec. Whether it is at the field or the gym, we try to drop everything so that we can either play games or socialize.

Anyone who would like to participate in the variety of sports opportunities at Fletcher can do so by signing up. Flag-football, soccer, volleyball, basket-ball and soft-ball are the sports of choice at Rec time.

The most popular sport at Rec though is "social time!" During this time close friends get to spend time together. One of the best ways to exercise is to catch up on the latest news, get away from books and unwind is to go to Rec.

Clubs at FA

From the Largest group on campus- the Acroknights -to the smallest- perhaps the various family groups -there are exceptional opportunities for involvement on any level at which one feels comfortable. Each has his own success rate as a contributing member of the Fletcher Academy family and usually would like to improve it. Campus organizations exist to enhance interpersonal and outreach skills and promote a sense of unity in reaching a common goal. Whether hectic or slow each season at Fletcher offers many choices for involvement. Represented here are a few of the choices on the Odyssey.

Valentines Banquet

David,
 "You've Come A Long Way Baby!" Can't count the times you've wanted to quit, in utter frustration. This marks a major milestone in your life. Just remember this, and how it feels to have accomplished it. Then, with Jesus at the center, whatever you choose to do with your future, will be "Good Enough," and worth "hanging in there for." You are very precious to God and always will be! We love you and want you to know we'll always be there for you shouting, "Don't Quit! You can DO IT!"

Proud to be Yours,
 Mom and Dad

Dearest Shelli,

Congratulations! What wonderful 18 years these have been and how quickly they have gone! We have enjoyed watching you grow from a precious little girl to a mature young lady. You have blessed many people with the sunshine of your smile and your friendliness. We are so proud of all you've accomplished at F.A., your grades, leadership, social, religious, work and athletic activities. Most of all, we are proud of WHO you are and happy to be your parents.

Keep your eyes on Jesus; remember you will always be honored and precious in His sight. No matter where you go or what you do God will always love you and be with you! We will continue to pray for you as you look forward to future goals, hopes and dreams. Thank you for the love and joy you've brought to our family!

We Love You!
 Dad and Mom and Staci

Congratulations Josh!

We are very proud of you! Keep your eyes on the Lord and on your goals and you will do great things in life.

Love,
 Mom & Dad

Cassie,
 I always dreamed of having a daughter, and never thought I would. You are a dream come true for me. You have added so much to my life, it's been so special to have a daughter to talk to and spend time with.

Cassie, you have so many talents and abilities, you can do whatever you set your mind to for the future.

We are so proud of you. You're such a good student, your grades have been great this year.

We Love you so Much!
 Mom and Dad

My Dearest Betty,
 How proud could a mother get? I'll tell you, ever since God gave you to me you have been the greatest gift a mother could ever wish for. The love you give to me is within my heart forever. What a privilege to have seen you mature into such a lovely young woman. Now as you move forward towards your goals and dreams, go hand and hand with Jesus for I have given you back to Him to be in His heart forever.

I Agape You,
 Mom

Hey Jess!

How can it be possible that these past 18 years have flown by so quickly? Here you are, an Academy Senior with endless opportunities awaiting you. What an exciting time of life!

We are (and always have been) very proud of your abilities, choices, and accomplishments. God has given you many talents and gifts. Use them wisely and give Him the glory. Remember to keep Him first in your life and He will lead you to happiness and peace.

God has blessed and enriched our lives because of you! We are so proud to call you our son!

We love you very much,
 Mom and Dad

Ronald,
 We are so proud of you! You are such a blessing! 19 years ago you were so tiny and now tall, handsome and full of the zest for life. You've grown up into a fine young man. Keep reaching for your stars! You will succeed. We will always be there for you and remember, the Lord will be faithful to you.

Love, Mom, Dad, Jonathan and Jaime

To Our Daughter
 Samantha:

As your parents we wanted you to know how proud we are of you. Proud of all you are and what you will become. We know God has a purpose for your life and you will be a faithful worker for Him. So go forward with confidence knowing that we love you and will always be there for you, but most important, know that the One who created you will never leave you or forsake you. Even until the end of the age.

We love you very much,
 Mom and Dad

To Devin a Wonderful Son!

Congratulations on your 12th grade graduation!
We have always been so proud of you! You have made us so happy!

We love you!
