DEDICATED TO

— Mr. Wilhelm —

A strong, capable, and compassionate leader, you have worked hard to make Fletcher Academy a better home and school. You demonstrate how much you care for each individual student by always being willing to provide a listening ear. Your jokes and witty powerpoints add humor to what could be very dull chapel announcements. Often acting as both a substitute teacher and bus driver, you go above and beyond the requirements of your position. You have worked tirelessly to introduce new technology to improve the traditions and events that are so important to our academy. Thank you for your leadership and for all of your hard work. It's not easy to be the one who must enforce the rules and keep the order, but you have done so with kindness and straightforward explanations. You have been an excellent principal. Thank you!

EVENTS

Abandoned but unafraid, Braeden Heatherly stood alone on a water mat in the middle of the pond. His laughing friends tossed him a broom, and he paddled his way back to shore. Senior Survival was full of crazy shenanigans like this one, creating a weekend the class will never forget. Early Thursday morning, the seniors arrived at the school tired and unaware of what the next few days might bring. Though we can't reveal too much about this infamous weekend, you can be certain the seniors were effectively challenged.

Senior Survival

What kind of experience did you have at senior survival?

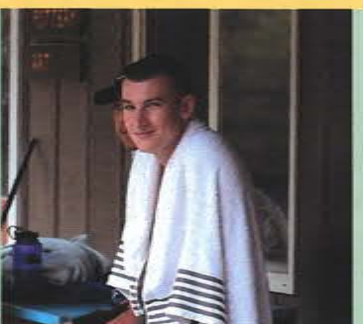

"Lots and lots of bonding with your class."
-Jordyn Tucker

"It was very hot, and I sweat way too much."
-Sydney Fritz

"Senior Survival is what creates your class into a family."
-Guillermo Acevedo

"Revolutionary. It was a great experience."
-Dale McCants

These are the moments we will look back on and smile at.

HANDSHAKE

"The feeling of being a senior and experiencing handshake for the last time was exciting and sad all at once, because you realize you are doing it for the last time." -Jordyn Patton, 12

What do you like about Handshake?

Is it the feeling of seeing your best friend again after three months? Meeting a new person you know you will be friends with all year? How about awkwardly shaking the hands of all your fellow Fletcher students? It's a good thing Mrs. Rahm brings hand sanitizer. There's just something about Handshake that's unlike any other event. It brings everyone together and helps us form new friendships before the school year even begins.

The sun was blinding. Its harsh rays were beginning to burn the students' skin when suddenly a cloud of fog washed over the mountain. The fog was so dense that it was difficult to see the skits being performed. Regardless, it was a very refreshing and relaxing Sabbath.

Sabbath in the Mountains

"I had so much fun doing the group activities and taking a hike afterwards. It was definitely a memorable one!"
-Sydney Fritz, 12

"Out of the three years I've been here, this year's Sabbath in the Mountains was the best! Especially the fog. It was pretty cool."
-AJ Bethea, 11

"Sabbath in the Mountains was a great way to meet new people - especially the freshmen."
-Matthew Rogers, 11

"Before the mountains were born, You brought forth the whole world. From everlasting to everlasting, You are God."

Savage chanting. Ferocious chewing. Tons of screaming. If an outsider were to wander into the LPC during Class Scramble, imagine what they might think. Fletcher Academy would look more like an insane asylum than a school. But in a student's perspective, this night is perfectly normal. To many, it's the most memorable event of the year.

Competitive feelings were high that night, with each class proving they were capable of winning. In the end, however, the large junior class pulled ahead and claimed the victory. The senior class, though briefly discouraged, quickly pulled themselves together and celebrated their last Class Scramble with a pizza and brownie feast.

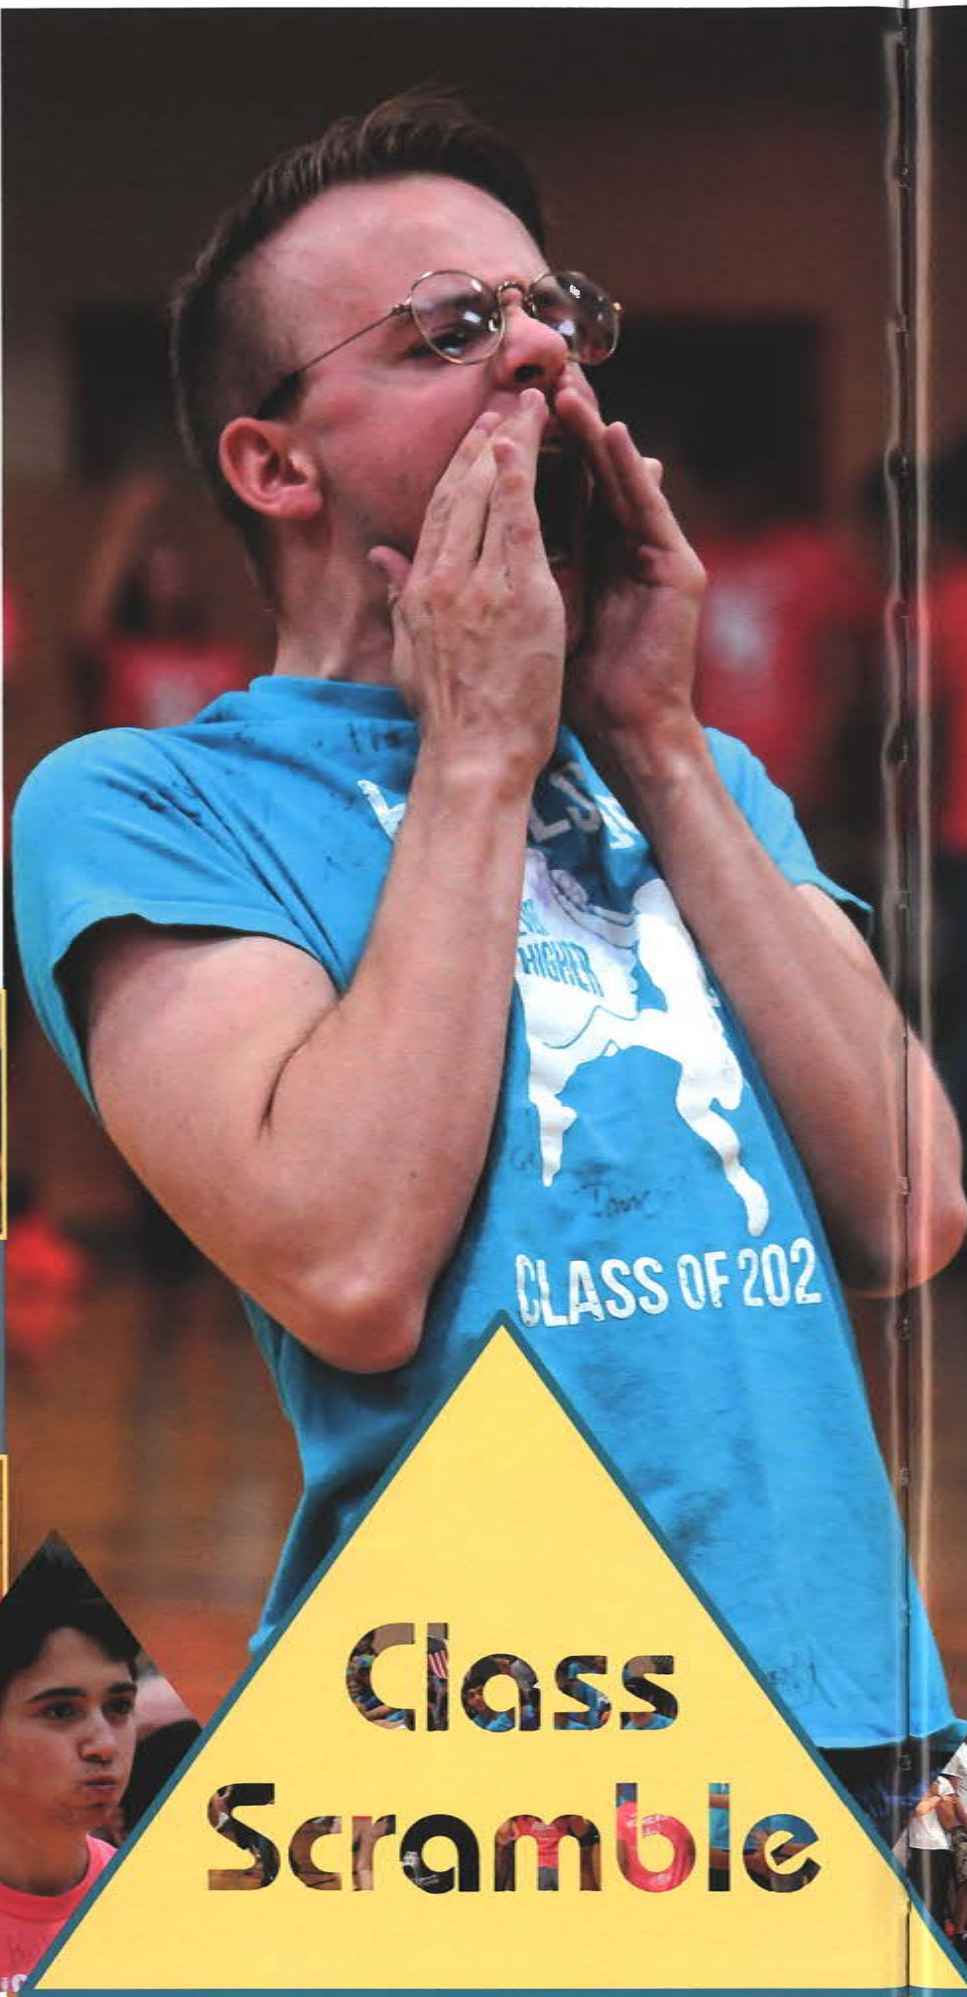

The senior class watches intently as Mr. Wilhelm prepares to call the next item, most of them unaware of the camera. One is more aware than the others.

Julian Tapia, freshman, sprints from the center of the gym to the freshmen corner and back, concentrating completely on the ping pong ball in front of him.

Everest Kim, sophomore, competed in and won the screaming contest. We always knew his loud mouth might be useful for something.

GIRLS CLUB CAMPOUT

Swimming, hiking, and growing closer with God

It was a windy Saturday night, and the girls were almost ready for bed. A few sophomores had the bright idea to pull a prank on the freshmen. They gathered around the freshmen's cabin and began banging on the windows. Though they assumed immediately that it was a prank, the freshmen still screamed at the top of their lungs and covered their faces in fear. Suddenly, they heard the sound of glass shattering into tiny pieces. They all ran into the other room terrified, not knowing what was going on. Ashlyn Ford, sophomore, had accidentally broken the window.

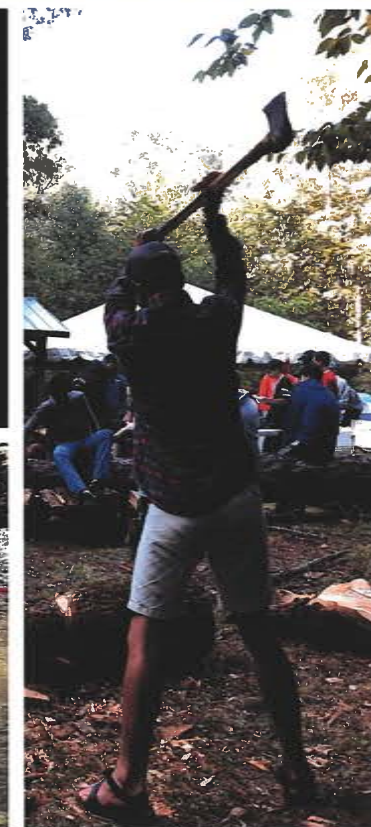

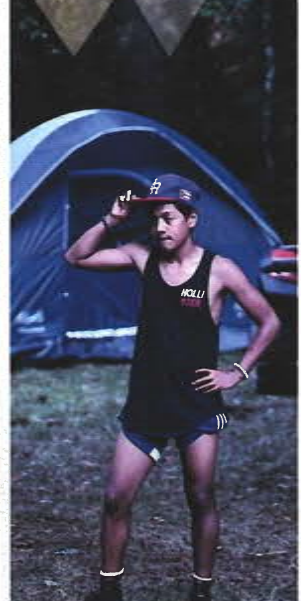

O come to the altar
The Father's arms are opened wide.

BOYS CLUB CAMPOUT

Jacob Smith, junior, made the decision to give his life to Jesus on the Sabbath of Boys Club campout.

class of 2021

History Trip was a great experience! Luckily for the juniors, it had the perfect balance between learning about the nation's history and having tons of fun. Not only did they gain a new perspective on America's beginning, but they also gained a new perspective on their class and the beginning of their new family.

"Getting my squid hat at the aquarium."
-Harrison Schwartz-Jackson, 10

When Cameron Zinke spotted a giant horseshoe crab, he knew what he had to do. With the help of his friends (and to the disgust of the onlookers), the crab was cleaned and gutted, and a special platform was erected to display the creature to Mr. Carvill. Though it did not earn a spot in the classroom display case, the horseshoe crab was a worthy find.

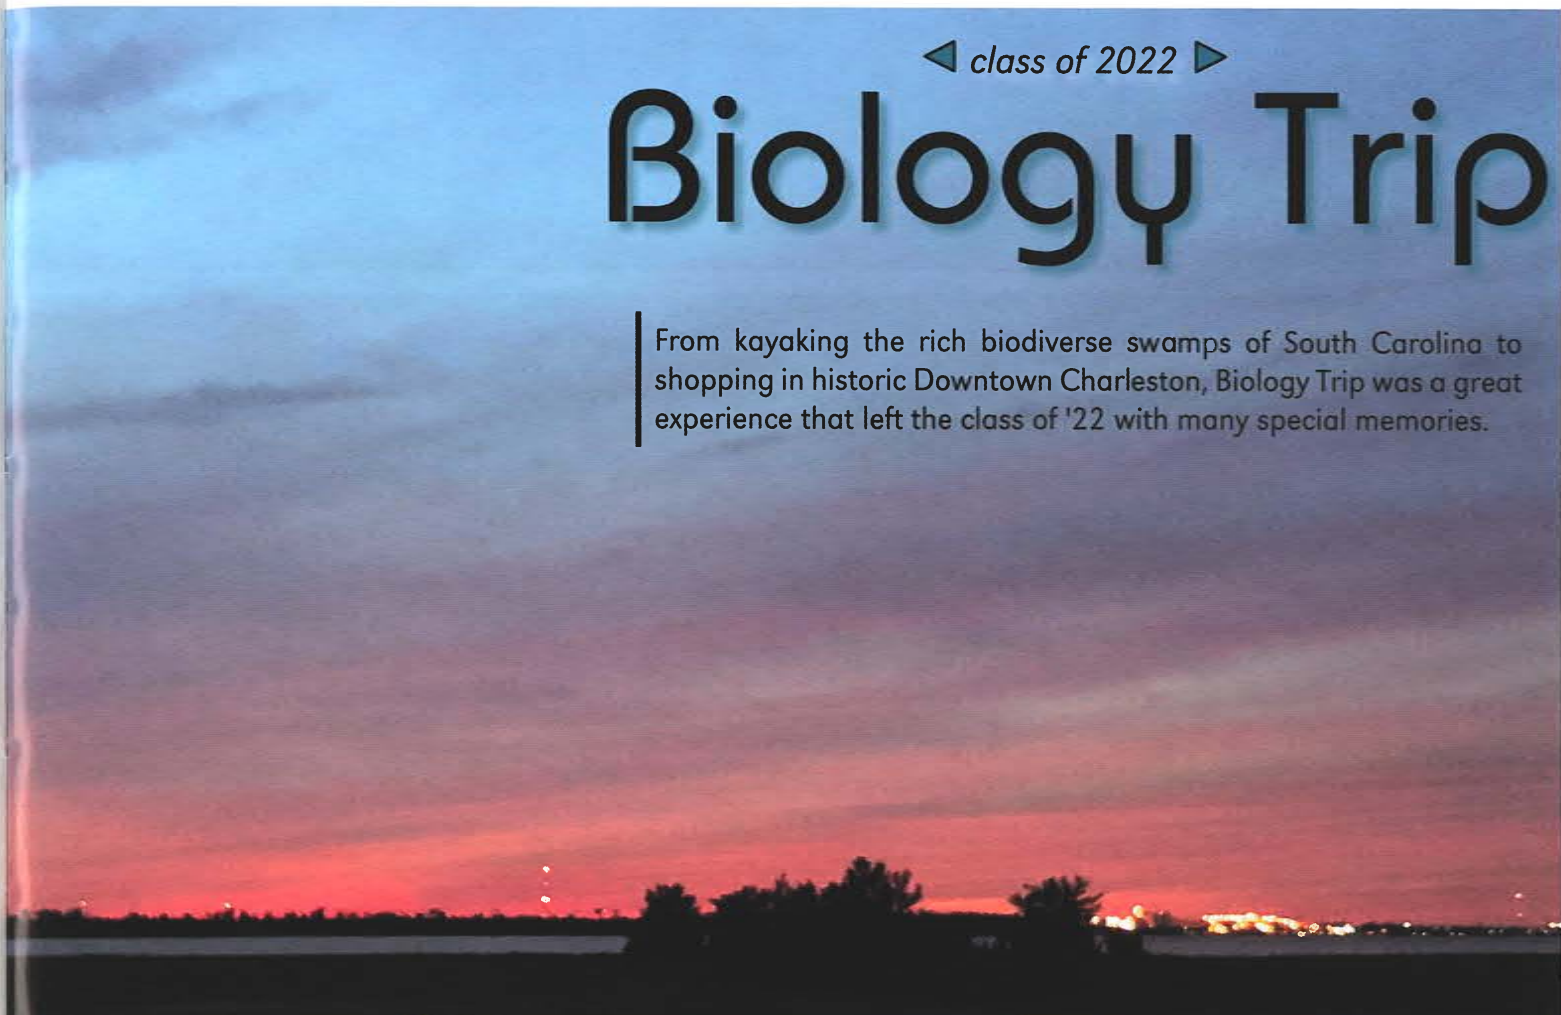

The sophomores had a few hours of down-time most evenings, so they played a variety of card games. Karma was certainly a crowd favorite, and no could beat the amazing Liu who mastered the game immediately after playing it for the first time.

◀ class of 2022 ▶ Biology Trip

From kayaking the rich biodiverse swamps of South Carolina to shopping in historic Downtown Charleston, Biology Trip was a great experience that left the class of '22 with many special memories.

After a long, treacherous hike through Bull's Island, the sophomores finally reached the beach. Once there, they could stroll along the shore with their friends, search for shells for their packets, and even wade into the beautiful ocean.

Week of Prayer

Week of Prayer was the perfect opportunity for a spiritual awakening, bringing the entire student body together to learn about God. Guest Speaker Pastor Henry Johnson spoke vividly on the life of Jesus. He illustrated the stories of John in a way that brought the characters and events to life, emphasizing small details that enraptured his audience and opened their eyes to see things they had never noticed before. The students were enlightened with the news that not only did they believe in God, but He also believed in them.

"The Bible stories truly came to life."
-Alicia Garver, 10

"Pastor Henry helped me realize that even if nobody loves me, God does."
-Chris Hawkins, 10

"Week of prayer showed me that God works in crazy ways if we just let Him."
-Lilly Nunnaley, 11

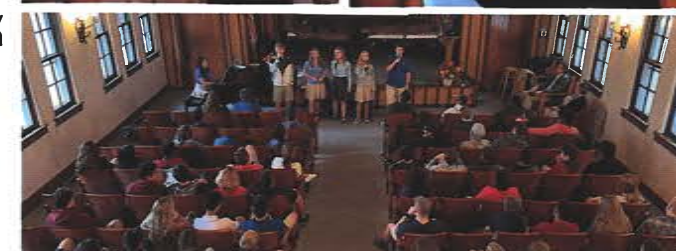

"Pastor Henry offered a personal and relatable picture of who God is."
-Hannah Taylor, 11

"I hope this week has truly made an impact. I know I have been blessed by getting to know so many people. Making new friends and reacquainting with old ones was definitely a highlight."

"A couple of days before the race, I fell asleep in Mrs. Stout's English class and got a 0/10 for participation, so we made a deal. She told me to read my outside reading book while I ran the 5K, and she would give me my credit back. So I did and ended up taking a double dub."
-Jake V.

"The seniors FINALLY won tug of war!!!"
-Jordyn P., 12

After fighting for their chance to be first for 2 games, the junior guys took the win from the seniors.

The freshmen girls played their very best in their face-off against the senior girls, but the experienced seniors still claimed the title!

"A doctor a day keeps the apples away."

A Senior's

Perspective

Cody Bell fills out his college application, an action he will become quite familiar with in the coming months.

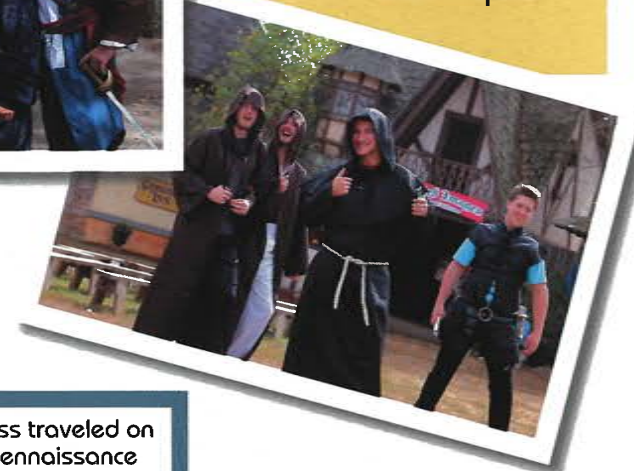

Matthew Howland won a free scholarship to Southern in a random drawing!

College is right around the corner for seniors, and it can be very intimidating. Thankfully, they were given the opportunity early this year to visit Southern Adventist University and learn about both college life and Southern's campus. Each student selected two majors they were interested in, and then they were given campus tours that eventually led to the department they had chosen. However, the event consisted of a lot more than just tours. The seniors spent an afternoon in Downtown Chattanooga and were treated to a game night and Bruster's ice cream. The event was both beneficial and exciting, and it allowed the seniors to see through a college student's eyes.

"My favorite part was seeing kids make fun of us because of our costumes, but then us making fun of them back."
- Josh Myers

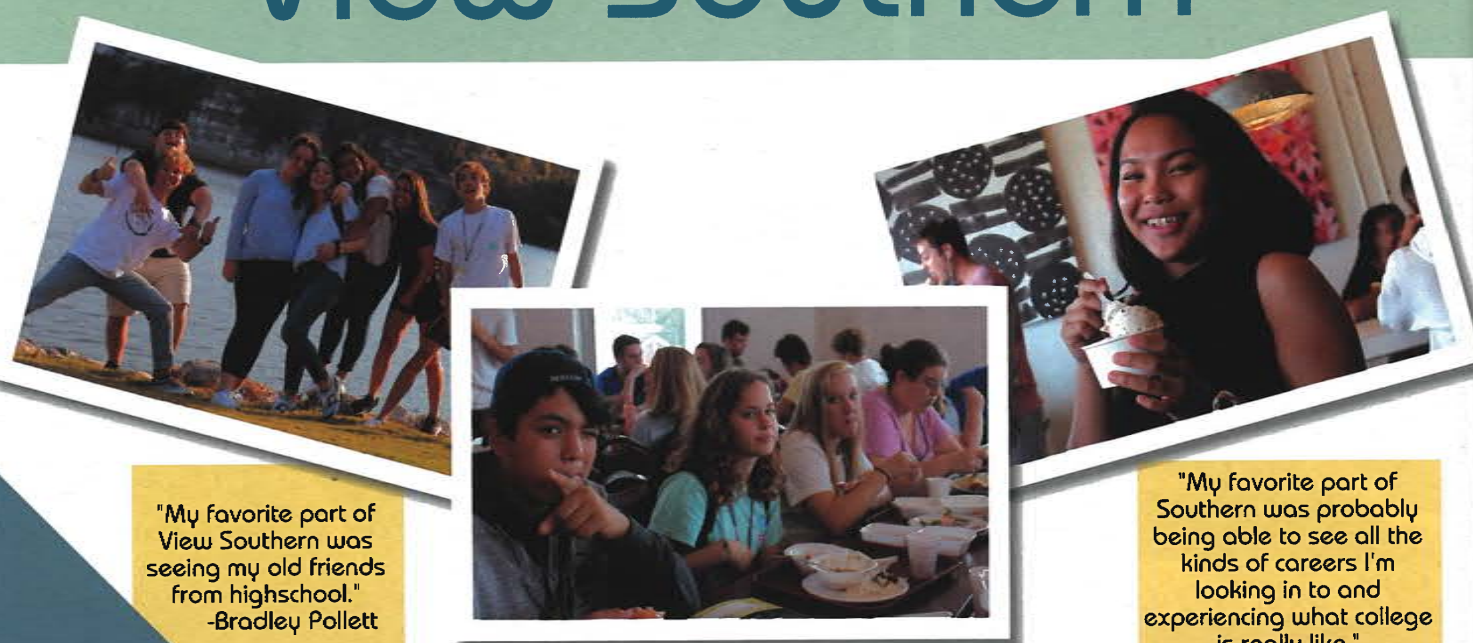

Once upon a time, the senior class traveled on a bluebird to the magnificent Renaissance Festival to see how people lived and entertained back then. They learned about kings and queens, fairies and mermaids, and knights and jousting. For extra credit, they wore Renaissance apparel. Some came as princesses, some as queens, some as friars, some as assassins, some as peasants, and one (ahem...Kelli Hopkins) as a plague doctor. The event was very interactive, prompting the seniors to chat with many of the cast members. A small group was even confronted by a magician who was quick to ask if Bradley Pollett was a leprechaun.

View Southern

Renaissance Fest

"My favorite part of View Southern was seeing my old friends from highschool."
-Bradley Pollett

"My favorite part of Southern was probably being able to see all the kinds of careers I'm looking in to and experiencing what college is really like."
- TG Cabil

Fall Festival

There is nothing on this earth more to be prized than true friendship.
-Thomas Aquinas

Girls Club Banquet

There are excellent bowlers, average bowlers, and, well, those who struggle a bit more. A few of us witnessed TG Cabil, senior, throw her bowling ball into the adjacent lane... which is way worse than the gutter. At least she made us laugh.

"I'm dripping too hard."

"I don't even know what's happening anymore."

SA Christmas Party

'Tis the Season to be Jolly

With final night around the corner, the SA Christmas Party is a perfect opportunity for students to relax and enjoy the season.

Stair sledding is among one of the many popular activities in the Christmas party.

"I had the opportunity to watch Home Alone in English for the third time in my life."
-Zabdi Z., sophomore

"Fletcher is like sliding down the stairs, it's a downhill slope."
-Dale M., senior

"Karaoke was my favorite part of the Christmas party. I'm sure everyone in the ad building heard me scream my lungs out."
-Sara H., sophomore

Winter Olympics

"I was definitely excited that we had made it that far, but we knew we couldn't have done it without the whole team effort. It was nerve-racking playing against people older than us and having everyone watching just us (at least for me), but I think the main thing was having a positive attitude cause we were the underdogs to start with and expected to lose. But we had to be calm in spite of our nerves. It was probably one of my favorite basketball games I had ever played. Mostly because it was the championship and we had Mr. Durby coaching, which was the BEST!"

Senior Class Trip

The seniors' class trip was a wild but spectacular adventure. Before beginning their week of work, they ate at an oceanside restaurant, toured the old city of Santo Domingo, and visited beautiful sand dunes. On their first Sabbath, 6 students preached at separate churches, and the entire class attended and helped with a community outreach concert. The next 5 days were full of hard work. The seniors worked on construction at a church, and the class artists, including Mrs. Henski, painted murals in the childrens' Sabbath school room. Some students also went to 4 public high schools where they spoke to large groups of teenagers about God. Fortunately, the class was able put on Vacation Bible Schools at 4 elementary schools, giving them plenty of time to play with the younger kids. The trip concluded with a visit to Scape Park, a beautiful theme park with zip-lining, animals, and tons of natural pools. They spent their last Sabbath on a boat in the gorgeous Carribean. The trip took a lot of hard work and patience, but God was with the seniors and enabled them to witness to everyone they met. Of course, if it wasn't for the Acevedos and their love and generosity, the trip would not have been quite so amazing. They allowed the seniors to stay in their beautiful beach house where the students were served fresh Dominican food and could swim in both their pool and the ocean. The trip was certainly a once-in-a-lifetime experience, and though leaving was bittersweet, the class both gave and gained a large blessing.

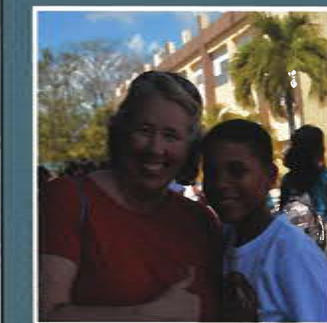

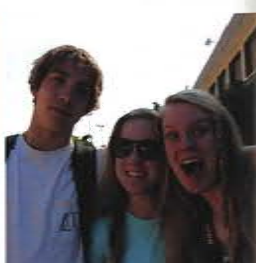

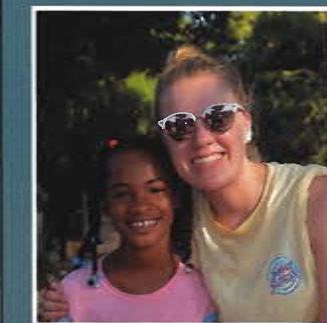

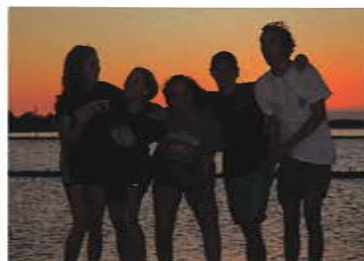

"I was sitting on the edge of the boat, and I could see giant starfish everywhere. As we got off the boat to swim, it was only 4 feet deep, so we went to go find some to hold. It was so cool!"
-Cara Patton

BRAVE THE SHAVE

11/21/19

During Spirit Week this year, Fletcher Academy had the privilege to demonstrate their support for FA Alumni Robert Hastings. To help fund his battle with Lymphoma, male staff and other participants were willing to shave their heads. It was a touching and very entertaining chapel as students had the opportunity to shave the staff members' heads themselves. In total, $11,680 was raised for Robert's cancer treatments.

ah-ha moment

Whew...school can be stressful. Fletcher Academy students know this all too well, and the stress only builds as the year goes on. Thankfully, most students have learned how to balance their time and have fun studying with their friends.

51.8% of people said they wear vans

38.5% of people said they wear oversized t-shirts

What's "in" can change in the blink of an eye, but these are the current trends that everyone is raving about. This year, social media has turned into a world of TikTok dances such as "the woah". Fashion trends have turned into oversized t-shirts, chacos, vans, and, yes, a surprising revival of crocs. Of course, we can't forget the new highschool stereotype "VSCO girl".

35.4% of people said they are a VSCO girl

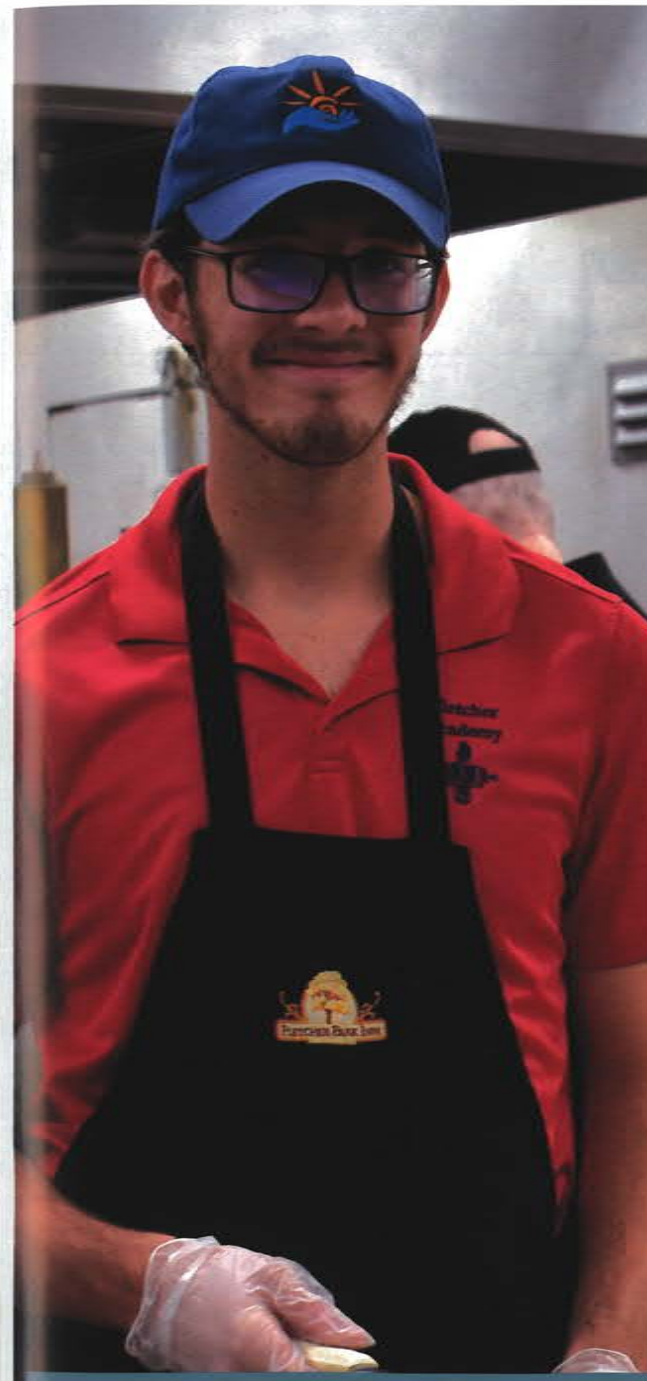

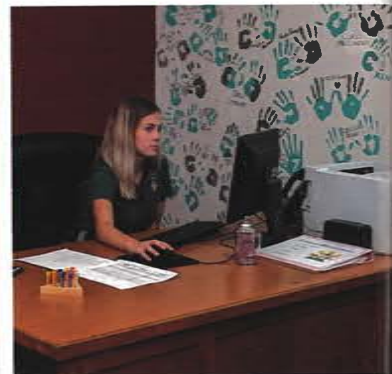

29.4% of people said they wear crocs

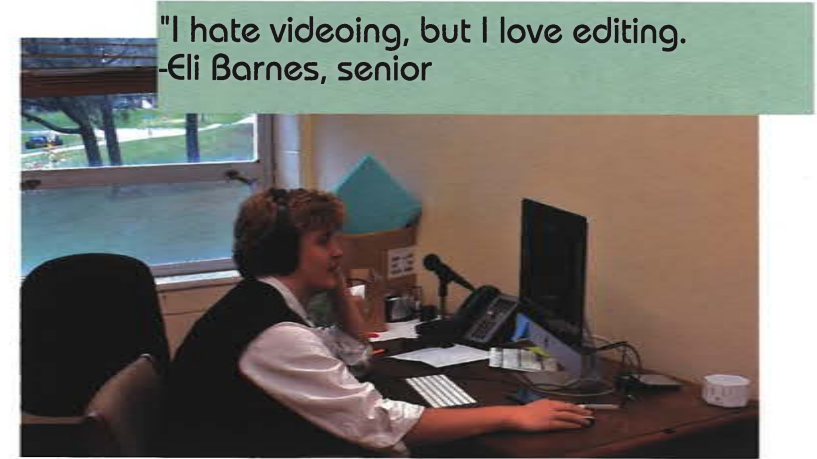

29.4% of people said they do the woah

Work Work Work

Press On

"Press on, keep on going, continue on. It's about not giving up.

Easy both in gymnastics and our walk with God. We know where we're going, and we know God is going to come again. All we can do is press on and keep on practicing over and over again, and then eventually you will get it."

~Coach Josh

Girls' Captain

"Being a captain doesn't always mean that you're the best of the best. To me it means that you get to be a leader that encourages your teammates to be better than they were yesterday, to push the whole team to grow stronger in gymnastics, and to Christ!"

~Jordyn Patton

Boys' Captain

"Being captain isn't always about being the most skilled or talented person on the mats. I don't have much of a background in gymnastics, so my focus this year as a captain has been to make my teammates smile and encourage them to work hard. To me, a captain is not only someone who pushes their team to get better as a unit, but also encourages individual growth, someone who motivates his/her teammates to cultivate positive character traits that they can carry into adulthood."

~Jake Vanbeukering

Acro Knights

B A N D

It takes hours of practice to play well in band. From the xylophone to the tuba to the clarinet, there is a large assortment of instruments that must work together to perform. Not to mention that they all need to be in tune. Though it might sound stressful, band is also a lot of fun. With so many different students and instruments comes many personalities and different perspectives.

PERFORMANCES

Students work hard to prepare themselves for performances. All of the hard work payed off in the end.

SAM MORALES FRESHMAN

"I enjoy band not only for friends, but also the chance to impact people spiritually through music."

LISA PETERS JUNIOR

"I'm proud of my section for being able to count. Two years ago, they used to depend on me."

CARLOS CRUZ

New band director Carlos Cruz has played a prominent role in leading the band to success. Despite not joining at the start of the year, the band has grown to appreciate Mr. Cruz and all that he has done.

"It helps me express myself in ways that bring others joy and hope." - Sarah Howland

"Choir brings me to life." - Matthew Pakula

"I loved being so involved and immersed in the music- it really makes my day." - Clarice Diaz

The Little Choir Things

That awkward moment when the audience starts clapping in the middle of a fermata, only to realize the song's not finished yet.

Rehearse, sing, perform.

Students must first learn to practice at performance-worthy quality in the classroom before their concerts. Students also further expand their musical talent by auditioning for solos or for small group parts.

"I am truly blessed to work with such a talented group of kids who radiate the love of Christ in everything they do." Mrs. Pettit

2020 HONORS CHORAL FESTIVAL SAU Choir Fest

MINISTRY

Nuance!

- a phrase that was constantly commanded by Dr. Tibble during practices (and likely her most well known remark). Throughout the four days on Southern Adventist University's beautiful campus, the combined chorales were slowly but steadily molded into a unified group. To further advance their voices, students were taught numerous styles and new techniques. All in all, everyone came home feeling more experienced and accomplished - and with great new friends.

"Happiness is singing in a choir."

COMMUNITY

SOLO IST

Josh Myers, 12

My solo in "And Can it Be" that I was blessed to have expressed God's true love for us. It showed how He sacrificed His all and emptied all He had for our sake, even if we didn't empty our all for Him. I also enjoyed working with Hannah and learning this beautiful piece.

"I really love investing my time in something as beautiful and diverse as music, and strings is an amazing opportunity for me to become a more developed musician."

- CAMI RYDER, 10

"I really enjoy sharing my passion for music with my students, and encouraging them to perform their best."

-Mr. Browning

Bells Will Be Ringing

How the students feel about Bells...

Sara said...

"I've never played bells before, and it has been a challenge, but I love it."

Amanda said...

"I like bells because of the music we play, and I gain muscle."

Dale said...

"Bells is amazing, and wonderful... I might have talent..."

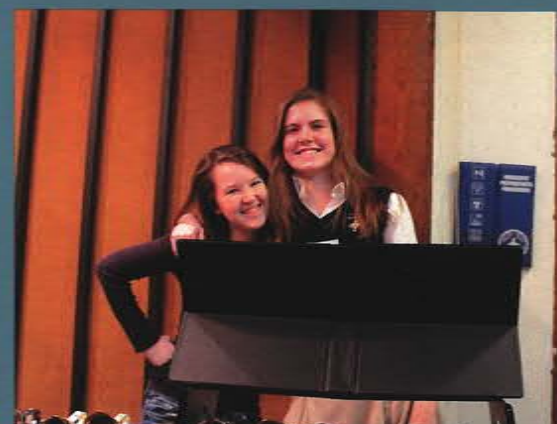

"I love music, and bells has been in my family, and I want to keep it a tradition. It also helps me un-wind from the day."

-Nathan Turner

Folder Buddies

Mrs. Baker

"I am enjoying the challenge of teaching highschool bells, and these students definitely make me so very proud."

FACULTY FAMILIES

Fletcher Academy serves as both a school and home, and faculty families certainly add to the latter role. These small groups provide fun atmospheres for students to grow closer to one another and to the faculty. Some families talk. Others play games. Sometimes, faculty parents don't show up, and the students sit awkwardly in silence. The most popular parents bring candy or other treats.

Emily Schneider, junior, tests a bike at REI during faculty family game night. Mr. Gibbs always has something fun planned.

The best faculty family/life group days are the days when someone brings food. Matthew Thomas, freshman, seems to agree.

Introduced last year, life groups are a fun way for students to get to know each other. It certainly helps that they are led out by students themselves, placing a new perspective on games and discussions.

Mr. Mcquistan's family plays an intense round of UNO because, well, who doesn't love that classic game?

1st Hall

"On the first week of school it was 9:59, and I hear a scream and Lizeth, freshman, runs down the hallway. She yells, "Please don't give me points! My milk is frozen!" She flies into her room, and I go to check her in. She jumps into bed and says, "I just wanted my cereal, but my fridge froze my milk!" I laughed and let her get up and make her cereal with her sister's milk, and she ate her cereal and lived happily ever after."
~Lilly Nunnaley

2nd Hall

"I was doing last check, and I heard one of my rooms being super loud, so I busted the door open finding at least 4 or 5 girls in one room pretending to sleep with the lights on. One was in a chair pretending to sleep, another was sitting on the floor, and everyone else was on their beds trying to hold back their laughter. Needless to say, they all got busted and received points for the night, but I couldn't stop laughing before I could give them points."

He's the dean that everyone knows and loves! You can always count on Dean Rahm to give you a good laugh or listen to anything you have on your mind.

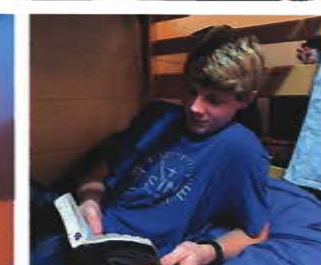

Even though it's his first year as dean, he is already loved by everyone in the boys dorm. He interacts with the students in a way that no one else can.

The Boys Dorm

If you're looking for some insanity on campus, the boys dorm is the place to be. Whether it's loud singing, running down hallways, pranking, slapping people in the face with cheese, listening to music as loud as possible, or pouring water on people in the shower, there is always something crazy going on. The boys dorm is a great place to become closer friends, and experiences there bond the guys. Experiences in the boys dorm are what give the full Fletcher experience, and no matter what, you know that these guys will always have each others backs.

The Fear

The toilets were broken downstairs. Julian Tapia, freshman, could find only one option. He had to venture upstairs and use the toilets on the top hall. After finding himself a stall, he heard the voice of Junior Leon, senior, from the adjacent stall ask "Hey, when does chapel start?" As a freshman using the toilets in senior territory, Julian was afraid. He responded "Please, man, don't hurt me. The toilets were broken downstairs..." Junior just wanted to know when chapel started.

Campus Ministries

spreading the gospel one step at a time

With the intent of making a true impact, Fletcher uses all opportunities to exemplify Christ through actions. Whether participating in community service or attempting to reach the lives here on campus, Campus Ministries allows students to get out and see themselves being used by God. In all that they do, students strive towards the goal of becoming the witnesses Christ wants them to be.

The main goal of campus ministries is to help the students get to know God and help them minister to others. If Fletcher didn't have campus ministries, what would it be?

Danny Fuentes, 2021

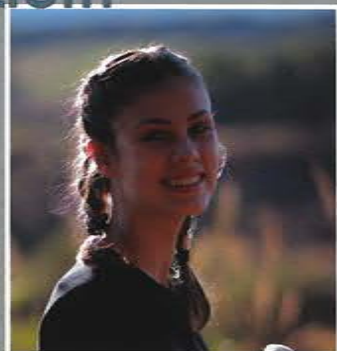

Look to the Lord

Leadership SPOTLIGHT

Danny Fuentes, junior
Campus ministries makes Fletcher different from other schools. As a Christian school, campus ministries' job is to display God's character to the fullest in all the events that are planned. What else could be of greater importance?

Audrey McCord, junior
Without Campus Ministries, our spiritual opportunities would be limited. It provides students with the chance to minister with other and grow closer to God themselves.

Leadership Conference

Fletcher Academy offers the opportunity to attend life-changing conferences. Leadership Conference is one example. Students from many different schools came together and learned how to become stronger leaders for Christ.

MUSIC

Music plays a huge role on Fletcher's campus. Music is an opportunity for students to use talents given by God to praise His name. One form of music ministry on campus is praise teams

COMMUNITY SERVICE

Fletcher does an amazing job at getting students to participate in acts of service for the community. Our main goal is to let Jesus reach others through us.

Say MORE
 Small Q & A with
 Mrs. States

Q. Why is Campus Ministries important to Fletcher?

A. This is a time where the students start making their own choices for God, rather than doing what their parents want.

Q. Where do you see Christ working on campus?

A. Throughout the whole week of prayer. People were just opening up and not putting a mask on. I think there is a true yearning for something more real.

He called you to this through our gospel, that you might share in the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.

2 Timothy 2:14

"Prayer Conference was amazing. God was truly present there. Engage, the music program, was really used by God for His glory. I recommend that if anyone has the opportunity to go, please do so!" - Larissa D., 10

Many people from different areas come together, but spiritual emphasis creates an accepting atmosphere. As Nehemiah West says, "Prayer Conference is a place to be yourself".

Prayer Conference

Therefore, confess your sins to one another and pray for one another, that you may be healed. The prayer of a righteous person has great power as it is working.
James 5:16

Prayer Conference is a place where students and staff members from surrounding Christian schools can come and spend a week together engulfed in God and his unconditional love for us. Meeting new people, creating new unbreakable bonds, and being able to grow spiritually together are unforgettable experiences. If you're looking for a spiritual high, a new beginning, new friendships, or simply a fun time, Prayer Conference is the place for you!

Several students sent in their best photos to the yearbook staff for a schoolwide photography contest. Each photographer displayed his or her own unique style and method of shaping perspectives.

Photography is an art of observation. It's about finding something interesting in an ordinary place. It has little to do with the things you see and everything to do with HOW YOU SEE THEM.
